

CLALLAM MOSAIC CODE OF CONDUCT

- Have Fun!
- Respect each other
- Don't hurt people's feelings
- Listen without interrupting when others are talking
- Honor each other's boundaries (physical space bubbles)
- Be responsible for your own belongings.
- Do not touch or take things that do not belong to you
- NO intimate displays of affection between couples
This means no kissing or cuddling – it makes others feel uncomfortable & is not appropriate in public settings.
- Leaving Class: If you need to leave activities for ANY reason, you MUST get a hall pass from an instructor.
- Cell phones: Turn volume to vibrate during classes & activities
- All Electronic Devices: Laptops, iPads, cell phones, tablets and other screened devices may be used before/after class and during lunch (device use during class will be rare, and ONLY with permission from the instructor)
- Don't come to class if you are sick or unable to participate
- Return your completed registration paperwork no later than the second week of each term

The Clallam Mosaic Code of Conduct is in place to make sure that our participants have the best learning environment possible. These guidelines allow our classes to run smoothly, so there will be consequences when not followed:

- * 1st time: Warning & possible notification of family/caregiver
- * 2nd time: Notification of family/caregiver + one-on-one conference between participant & Program Coordinator or Executive Director
- * 3rd time: Suspension from all programs for 1 week (no reimbursement)
- * 4th time: Suspension from all programs for the term (no reimbursement)
